Why Provide scholarships?

UCR students confront greater challenges than ever. With fees increasing and financial aid decreasing, students face additional debt and workloads. Affiliates Scholarships offer worthy students help in attaining their academic goals.

2014-15 UCR Affiliates Scholarship Recipients:

Alysia Morales: Senior, Sociology Major. Volunteerism: UECC Americorps—Community Service Tutor. “My educational experiences at UCR have helped me tremendously along the path to achieving my goals because of the many opportunities I have been given here.”

Sergio Morales: Senior, Computer Engineering Major. Volunteerism: Society of Hispanic Professional Engineers, Leadership Council. “The primary skill I have learned is being able to access a problem in the world of engineering, and then being able to use what I have learned and solve the problem from scratch.”

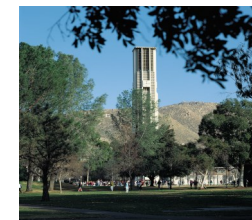

Claudia Najera: Senior, Business Admin Major. Volunteerism: Riverside Area Rape Crisis Center. “In five years, I hope to be in a position where I can make my family and the university proud as well as begin to repay all the support I have received throughout my entire scholastic career.”

Sandrea Shaw: Junior, Art History & Education Major. Volunteerism: California Youth Connection, Art History Abroad Program. “I would like to give back to Riverside by developing cultural and education programs for the youth in Riverside County.”

The Affiliates will enrich your life with fellowship, friends, knowledge, and the personal satisfaction of contributing to the educational careers of UCR students.

We ask that you consider becoming a member. Your membership dues primarily help fund scholarships which assist UCR students in defraying the ever rising cost of their education. In addition, dues help to defray program costs such as printing, room rental and parking. Last year, thanks to your support, we awarded $10,000 in scholarships to seven UCR students! This year's campaign is underway and continues until June, 2015.

Please renew your membership by completing this membership form and returning it today. Consider bringing a friend to one of our meetings. Spread the word about the great programs that Affiliates has to offer!
